BY HENRY CANTIN
ANP Staff Writer

BELLEVILLE -- Drastic cutbacks in the teaching programs and educational services currently available in the Van Buren Public School System will go into effect at the beginning of the 1968-69 school year next September, the Van Buren Township Board of Education announced in a special meeting Monday night.

The austerity program approved, the first major educational cutbacks in the history of the school district will see the start of half-day sessions in both the Senior and Junior High Schools and the elimination of interscholastic sports as well as other school curriculums.

Charles W. Bole, president of the Board of Education, in announcing the reduction in some teaching programs and the elimination of other school activities stated that the School Board acted after long budget study and deliberation and after consultations with school administrators and school auditor, Carroll Curtis.

"THE CUTBACKS were necessary and covered into a balanced budget," Bole said. "Board members 'hated' to take such action but it was absolutely necessary and essential if we are to operate during the new school year and maintain a balanced budget."

"The cutbacks ordered will bring about a total savings of $448,000. This is still short $107,000 required to live within current budget appropriations."

For several years, Charles dreamed of going to famed Disneyland. It was only a dream until four Belleville housewives assisted by local officials initiated a community-wide drive for contributions to finance the trip for the youth and his parents.

The fund campaign was a "success," in that enough monies were collected to pay for Charles trip.

So Charles, who must remain in a wheelchair and his parents, will arrive at the Metro Airport at 11 a.m. for a 12 noon departure for California. He will return to Metro on Friday, June 7, at 3:51 p.m.

During the school week, Charles attends the Rackham School in Ypsilanti where he is a member of the Boy Scouts. He has two sisters: Kim, 13; and Andrea, 10; and a brother, John, 9; at home.

Spearheading the fund campaign were: Mrs. Jerry Mason, Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Slenko with a big assist from Police Chief Irwin W. Stech.

ANGEL REPORTS

Huron Valuation Up: Tax Increase Seen

NEW BOSTON -- An increase in Huron Township's valuation will result in an approximate 10 per cent increase in tax rate, state equalized, George Angel, township supervisor, reported Monday.

The 1968 state equalized property valuation of the Township as reported by the Wayne County Bureau of Taxation is $23,791,030. This compares with $21,596,660 of 1967.

"This will mean a considerable increase at the same millage rate to schools, county and township. It is hoped that the upward spiral will level off and property taxes will be stabilized in the near future," Angel said.

THE SUPERVISOR also disclosed a communication from the Wayne County Department of Health regarding sewage disposal for building additions or alterations in Huron Township. John S. Stock, director, Division of Environmental Health, reported that "for many years Huron and township officials have worked cooperatively on all proposed new construction projects in the Township. Prior to issuance of any building permits, our department has reviewed the potential for on-site sewage disposal and has issued permits where such systems can be expected to function.

"In view of the extensive sewage disposal problems now existing in the township and in view of recent talks between township and this department that the agency's review of the site and disposal system condition be extended to where additions or major modifications are proposed. The department staff will not review sites before building permits are issued.

The township's electorate on May 6 defeated two new proposed sanitary sewer programs for the Township.

His bid of $1,749 was the low bid submitted. The high bid was $2,000.

Low Bid on Auditorium Is Approved

BELLEVILLE -- A low bid of $604,000 submitted by the Donald Nelson Company of Troy, Michigan, for the construction of Belleville High School's new Auditorium was approved by the Van Buren Township Board of Education at a special meeting held last Thursday, May 23.

A total of five bids were received. School Board Secretary Robert A. Hay reported that the high bid of $799,499 for general construction was submitted by Salvaggio and Son of St. Clair Shores.

The Minion Construction

Company of Ann Arbor submitted a bid of $732,668.

The 1,000-seat auditorium is to be built adjacent to the high school.

Hay estimated that its construction would take less than a year when started. The current building tradesmen's strike is holding up start of construction.

The auditorium's architects are Kingscott and Associates of Kalamazoo. The bids were examined by this firm and then presented to the School Board with recommendations.

The firm of John R. McCarr-thy Company of Dearborn submitted a bid of $215,500 for the mechanical contract. This was the low bid of six bids received. The high bid was that of Magnolia Plumbing and Heating Company of Southfield for $256,856.

VB SCHOOL CUTBACKS

The School Board is still continuing with its study of other teaching programs and school services. This further study of the school district's financial condition also hinges on what economic package the Van Buren Education Association present in current negotiations on a new teacher contract for 1968-69 school year. "We are considering a factor but what will be presented remains to be seen," it was stated.

THE ACTION by the School Board followed several weeks and days of "midnight oil burning" in conferences with school administrators. The school auditor, James Egan, business manager; and Harold O. Wetherell, school superintendent. Sessions with Van Buren Education Association negotiators were also held.

The Association is the sole bargaining agent for some of the system's 300 teachers. Two successive defeats by the School District voters on requested school operation millage of $5.50 per $1,000 of assessed property valuation, state equalized, prompted the School Board to call the sessions and to order a new and complete restudy of the school budget.

The defeated millage was to raise some $550,000 "urgently" needed funds to maintain current programs and services. This amount was based on an anticipated increase in state aid and added revenue (estimated) from a rise in property valuation in the school district.

THE LATEST budget studies definitely determine a deficit of $555,000 of present educational programs were maintained in the new school year. Egan reported earlier that anticipated revenue for the 1968-69 school year is $4,208,550, made up of property tax collection of $2,347,300 and state aid (latest figure) of $1,704,000.

Anticipated expenditures for the 1968-69 school year is $4,763,550, of which 80 percent is for salaries of teachers and other school personnel.

THE CUTBACKS approved and savings realized as are reported by President Bole are as follows:

- The elimination of Elementary Music and Art including the string orchestra and band, $105,000.

- Eliminating the purchase by the school district of Elementary and Junior High School text books. Parents will have to purchase these in the new school year, $40,000.

- Elimination of all Junior and Senior High School Interscholastic Sports, $30,000.

- Elimination of all extracurricular activities in both Junior and Senior High Schools including band and chorus and Saturday Programs, $27,000.

- Elimination of Saturday afternoon basketball in elementary school apprentice program and also Saturday afternoon and evening swimming programs which are open to the public, $10,000.

- Half-day sessions for Senior High School (all classes) as well as Physical Education Programs, $185,000.

- Half-day sessions in the Junior High School in addition to cutting Industrial Art, Home Economics and Physical Education classes to one grade instead of two grades at present, $91,000.

Eliminate all extracurricular activities and trips, $20,000. It was reported that some 20 teachers plus those assigned to music and physical education will be affected by the cutbacks. Efforts will be made to retain them for other assignments, if qualified, and by teacher "turn-over."

Township Committee Probes Permits On Sand Removal

BELLEVILLE -- An inquiry into the issuance of sand removal permits by Van Buren Township is underway.

The inquiry is by a three-member committee appointed May 23 by the Township Board. Questions raised by two township residents about issuance of several permits and a request for clarification on the Sand Removal Ordinance brought about the appointment of a three-member committee to study the question and make a report to the Township Board within 30 days.

THIS REPORT was to have been made last Thursday. The residents claimed that the committee has not reported.

Mrs. Julia Sawmiller of 774 Sumpter Road and Richard Barber of 547 Wharton Avenue, appeared before the Township Board May 23.

Mrs. Sawmiller inquired as to why some sand removal permits were issued by the Board of Appeals and one by Louis A. Toth, township supervisor, (his signature appeared on one of the permits under review according to Mrs. Sawmiller) when the ordinance requires that the Township Board issue such permits.

She also wanted to know why some permits were issued at fees below that of $350 required and called for in the ordinance, as she understood the law.

She also charged that the ordinance requires a performance bond of $2,000 per acre and that some firms, with an excess of 80 acres involved in the sand removal, posted bond of "only" $10,000.

The committee appointed on Mrs. Sawmiller's inquiry were Edward Stoelton, William Van DeCar, trustee, since retired; and Frederick Birk, township treasurer.

On the Barber inquiry the committee appointed was composed of Frederick Birk, Joseph Hogan and Jerry Maton, both trustees.

BIRK, MONDAY, stated that he was not present at the May 23 board meeting and a death in his family delayed his attention to the matter further. He said that a meeting was to be held Monday night.

Mrs. Sawmiller asked for clarification on the time for which a permit is issued.

The ordinance states a year but she contended that one was issued to a firm for five years. And also why three permits were issued to one company for one area in the township within a five-day period.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
THE EAGLE AND THE OYSTER

When God made the oyster He granted him absolute economic and social security. He built the oyster a house... a shell to protect him from his many enemies. When hungry, the oyster simply opens his shell and the food rushes in to him... it is a different story with the mighty eagle!

When God made the eagle He must have said something like this to him: "The blue sky is the limit. Go build your house and hunt your food wherever you can find it."... The eagle went out and built his house in the highest mountain crag, where storms threaten him constantly day after day. For food he flies through days of rain, snow, wind and lightning... The eagle, not the oyster... is the emblem of the United States of America.

Each year, a Christopher Columbus annual better management award is given. It is given in memory of Christopher Columbus, the greatest manager of them all, in that he started out not knowing where he was going, upon arriving he did not know where he was, and in returning he did not know where he had been.

WHILE THIS type of management technique might have worked for an explorer in 1492, it would probably not work for a business man today (unless you are running a vintage of 1492 business.)

What is needed is the knowledge of where you are going, a means of getting there, and some means as to when you have arrived.

Would you believe it? Normally all business across the country are still failing for solicitations for advertising by phony "unionsponsored" publications.

The usual gimmick is "take an ad to show your good will." The racket apparently has become so extensive that the Wall Street Journal came up with a lengthy feature article on this subject in a recent issue.

If you are in doubt about any solicitation, call your Chamber of Commerce. It could save you more than your investment in the Chamber of Commerce. Just keep in mind that your Chamber has an active, aggressive Solicitations Committee that can and does weed out the phonies.

WE NOW have maps of the greater Belleville area in our Chamber office. Please do stop by and pick one up.

As of May 20 the Chamber has their 75th member; The Home Gallery, 51 Fifth Street at Main.

The Chamber would like to extend their congratulations and best wishes to the Senior Class of Belleville High who will be graduating on June 12. May the coming years provide many opportunities to grant you success in the goal at which you are striving for. We all are proud of you and wish you good health, happiness and success.

Full board and membership meeting with their ladies at Rogalle's, 6:30 p.m., June 27, 1968. No general meetings in July and August. Reservation invitations will be mailed soon.

Develop Park Area
Oriented to People

During the summer, we look forward to enjoying the beauties of nature and wildlife in the world around us. It may be bird-watching, a drive through the woods, a row across the lake or a walk along a nature trail.

The beauty of our natural resources and our wildlife is almost lost when they are too remote from many people who are locked out by distance.

The average American does not travel for vacations more than 500 miles from his home. If that far, according to the Outdoor Recreation Resources Review Commission Report.

Further transportation improvements may extend this: 11 per cent may go 500 miles; 6 per cent, 750 miles; 17 per cent, 1,000 miles; and 10 per cent may reach 2,000 miles or more. It seems safe to say that most of the people will never see many of the federal parks.

ABOUT A THIRD of the national land area has been acquired by the federal government down through the years, and the government continues to acquire more land supposedly for recreational purposes rather than develop the land it already owns.

Great emphasis has been placed on preserving vast roadless wilderness areas in the West. None of us would argue with the preservation of certain areas outstandingly superior in scenic quality and beauty.

However, proper balance in land use policies would give appropriate weight to the factors of accessibility and availability. For example, a vestpocket park in a congested city may make more sense than tremendous remote acreages beyond the viewing horizon.

Let's develop local recreational areas, oriented to people.

Area Soldier Aids
Ambush on Enemy

HUE, Vietnam -- A score of NVA regulars strolled happily into an ambush set by 101st Airborne Division paratroopers north of here recently.

Laughing and joking, the Communists approached the ambush position set by paratroopers of A Co., 1st Bn. (Abn), 501st Inf., near a village during the late twilight hours.

"We were just in position when I noticed a group of people standing around near the village," said Sgt. Joe Miller, Herriman, Utah.

"It was pretty dark and one of them was carrying a carbine," said Spec. 4 Michael D. Sharpe, Wayne, Mich. "They were laughing and talking before they saw us."

FINALLY REALIZING the predicament they were in, the Communists backed off, hoping the paratroopers would believe they were South Vietnamese.

"As they were backing away, I saw their AK-47's," Miller said. "When they turned to run I opened up on them with my M-16."

The entire squad then opened up on the fleeing enemy, cutting down several of them as they tried to cross a nearby bridge.

"A little bit later we saw them trying to carry off a couple of their wounded," Miller said, "so we called for illumination and artillery."

A quick search of the area revealed seven enemy bodies, four AK-47's and one carbine. One of the casualties was identified as an NVA lieutenant.

A notebook taken from his pocket contained valuable intelligence information.

Old Timer Relates 'Loner's' 600
Mile Trip Along Arctic Coast

By Lee Smits
Special Writer

Being concerned with the outdoors and its denizens puts you in line for many a bonus, many an extra dividend. Memory files them away, for reviewing as the years roll on.

In Grand Rapids, when Walt Palmer mysteriously promised a surprise, I couldn't have guessed what it would be. He took me to a neighborhood cafe, clean and quiet, operated by a man and wife team; like many other cafe, except the walls were lined with game heads -- moose, caribou, mountain sheep including specimens with Boone and Crockett Club ratings.

These trophies were shot in the far north by the proprietor of the cafe, Tony Dauksza. Tony is a loner.

He flies into the wildest area of North America and takes off on his own. No guide, no base camp, no pack train, no cabin motor boat. One man against the wilderness.

LET'S CONCEDE that in general the sportsman who makes a solo trip, fishing or hunting, without "local knowledge," as the pilot book calls it, probably wastes his time and money. The guide, the outfitter, the native who knows, puts you on target, and brings you back alive.

This basic advice is ignored by Tony Dauksza. He is happiest, strictly on his own, in the wildest parts of North America.

In the publication of the Grand Rapids Lions Club, Tony Dauksza tells of a typical trip -- 600 miles along the arctic coast, by canoe and outboard, starting from Barrow, Alaska, on July 15.

Barrow was completely enclosed," he writes, "by an immense field of pack ice as far as the eye could see."

"Suddenly my small canoe and all of my big plans seemed somehow way off kilter. Again my map drew attention. Last year the rugged Brooks Range was my playground, our big rock garden across the northern rim of Alaska.

"REPORTING to the State Trooper (Alaska Mountie) -- I first received a serious frown. Then slowly the officer told me: 'The odds are all stacked against you, being alone and with a small canoe. You will either drown, freeze to death, or starve.'

"It's a big country, you can't walk out. If you swampy have about three minutes. If you lose power, strong currents and wind will take you out to sea." Then he added -- "Eskimos are all at Barrow or Barter Island, you'll be all alone out there."

"Sunshine finally came to our Barrow split. I moved out. A few Eskimo friends watched as I departed.

"Soon my first near-miss, I made it to shore with about six inches of water in the canoe. I learned that I had a real tiger by the tail. Weather was in one word -- horrible. Big bays with shallow water would force me far out beyond the sight of land. This was to cause a few real nightmares.

"CARIBOU in groups of a few to a hundred roamed the tundra ledge along the shore. Wolves on two occasions drove caribou into the water just in front of me. Waterfowl in countless thousands would fly along the coast.

"My diet was mostly caribou, fresh or jerky, duck and goose and the ever present dried fish. This fare always had me lean

REBUILDING SITE

Archaeologists 'Dig' Michigan
Lore at Fort Michilimackinac

Ships longer than two football fields now glide under the mighty Mackinac Bridge that joins Michigan's two peninsulas but in its shadow, where birch bark canoes once landed, archaeologists literally are turning back the sands of time.

They're uncovering two centuries of drifting sand to reconstruct a time of adventure, of treachery, of intrigue, of cannibalism -- a time when the Straits of Mackinac was inhabited by voyageurs, French and British soldiers, fur traders and trappers, the Chippewa and Ottawa Indians.

The site is Fort Michilimackinac, (that's Mish-ih-mac-uh-naw), at Mackinac City at the top of Michigan's lower peninsula.

Under the direction of the Mackinac Island State Park Commission, archaeologists from Michigan State University are rebuilding the fort as it was 200 years ago when it was a key western outpost for the lucrative fur trade.

RESTORATION BEGAN in 1959 and painstaking excavation has uncovered more than 300,000 artifacts that help tell the story.

Coupled with the Fort Michilimackinac findings and research in Canadian and English archives, the archaeologists have pieced together precisely the plans of the fort, its buildings and the village outside its gates.

The fort was founded in 1715 by the French as both a fur outpost and jumping-off spot for further Great Lakes exploration. The British took control in 1761 at the conclusion of the French and Indian War.

THE INDIANS, however, had their revenge on the British in the 1763 massacre when they gained entry to the fort by a ruse during a convoluted lacrosse game and slaughtered most of the English garrison, but spared the French-speaking traders. It was part of a general Great Lakes uprising inspired by Chief Pontiac.

The British retook the fort in 1764 and held it until the Revolutionary War when they abandoned it, moving to nearby Mackinac Island which offered a better defensive position. Fort Michilimackinac then was left to be covered by the drifting, blowing sand until 1959.

Among the central figures in the fort's history was Alexander Henry, a British fur trader whose journal recorded the horror of the 1763 massacre.

THROUGH THE intercession of an Indian friend, Henry's life was spared and he witnessed the cannibalism of a less fortunate prisoner who the Indians "chose as the fattest, cut off the head and divided the whole into five parts, one of which each was put into five kettles...."

Major Robert Rogers' fate was somewhat better -- he was taken from the fort in chains, accused of being a traitor to a court martial. He was acquitted but life wasn't the same again for him.

Rogers, a hero of the French and Indian War as leader of Rogers' Rangers, dreamed of finding a northwest passage to the Pacific while commandant of Fort Michilimackinac but the expedition was a failure and led to his arrest.

SUBURBAN OFFICIALS START ACTION

26-Member County Board Election Hit By Court Suit

Suburban officials have filed suit in Circuit Court in an effort to block the election of a 26-member Wayne County Board of Supervisors to replace the present 130-member county board.

The suit was filed late last week by the Dearborn Heights city administration. It charges that the five-member apportionment commission which devised the 26-district plan was illegally constituted.

The suit asked that the Wayne County Clerk, the County Election Commission and the Secretary of State be enjoined from accepting filing fees or nominating petitions from candidates for election to the 26-district board.

THE CASE was assigned to Judge Cornelia G. Kennedy. A show-cause hearing set 10 a.m. Tuesday (May 28), was postponed one week.

As a result of several court decisions and a legal opinion from the State Attorney General, it has appeared that a primary election for a 26-district county board would take place in the already-scheduled Aug. 6 primary, and that a final election would be held in the Nov. 5 general election.

Suburban officials generally are not opposed to the concept of a directly-elected County Board of Supervisors.

However, they charge that the 26-district plan would result in a county board which would be dominated by the City of Detroit, and that many out-county communities would be effectively denied representation because the districts would cut across so many local boundaries. They argue that a board of 35 members would give the suburbs better representation.

At a recent meeting of the Out-County Supervisors Association, representatives of most of the cities and townships in Wayne County outside Detroit were unanimous in their opposition to the 26-district plan.

They agreed to go to court to block implementation of the plan.

THEY HOPE to defeat or delay implementation of the 26-district plan at least until the voters have had a chance to vote on a county home rule proposal which will be on the Nov. 5 ballot.

If the home rule proposal were adopted, a charter commission would be elected to draft a charter form of Wayne County government. One of its features would be a directly-elected county board of up to 35 members.

Under both the 26-district plan and county home rule, members of the county board would be elected on a partisan basis from single-member districts of approximately equal population.

THE 26-DISTRICT plan was devised under a 1966 state law which requires that all Michigan counties replace their present county boards with directly-elected legislative bodies.

At present, board members are representatives of the various cities and townships in the county, rather than directly-elected representatives of the voters.

Each township has one seat and cities have varying numbers of seats, in accordance with a population formula established by the State Legislature.

In 1966, the Legislature passed Act 261, requiring that counties elect their boards from single-member districts.

THE ACT established a five-member county apportionment commission to draw up the districts.

The apportionment commission was to consist of three elected county officials, the clerk, prosecuting attorney and treasurer -- and the "statutory county chairmen" of the Democratic and Republican parties.

"If any county does not have a statutory chairman of a political party, the two additional members shall be a party representative... appointment by the chairman of the state central committee for each of the political parties," the act states.

In its suit, the Dearborn Heights city administration charges that the apportionment commission was illegally constituted because the political parties do not have statutory county chairmen, and because the two county chairmen were not appointed to the commission by the chairman of the two parties' state central committees.

ROMULUS -- Well deserved recognition was given to two local persons at the annual Honors Banquet, held by the Romulus Kiwanis Club for outstanding Romulus High School graduates, and at the Romulus Elementary Schools' Spring Music Festival.

The two programs were held the same evening, Thursday, May 23, at Romulus Senior High School.

In both instances musical ability was recognized.

At the Honors Banquet, held in the school cafeteria, Mrs. Walter Mach was presented with a corsage and gift from the Kiwanians, in appreciation of her late husband's faithful service as pianist for the club; also for his work with the youth of the community.

Honored at the Music Festival, which was held in the high school gymnasium, was Miss Grace Mathews, who has ably taught music for 25 years in the Romulus Community Schools.

Miss Mathews is moving to Elk Rapids, Michigan, with her family and plans to teach music there next year. Students of the elementary schools gave her a standing ovation.

SALEM -- Salem Hills Golf Club has rescheduled its first amateur golf tournament of the season. A two-man bestball event will now be held on Saturday and Sunday, June 8-9, promoter Robert Szilagyi announced.

The kickoff tournament will take up to 32 players (16 teams) on a first-come, first-serve basis. Cost for the 36 holes will be $10, which will cover the green's fee and throw $4 per player into the prize kitty.

Prizes will be in the form of merchandise certificates that can be redeemed at the clubhouse.

Entries for the two-day event will be taken at the golf course, 8810 West Six Mile Road (three miles west of Napier Road) or advance reservations may be made by phoning 437-2152. Reservations will be honored as long as the entry fee is paid up to one hour before 3 p.m. tee time on opening day.

Szilagyi said there will be no handicaps in the early tournaments at the championship course, but the event may be flighted after first day's play if there are enough contestants.

"We want to attract the top golfers in the area, of course," Szilagyi said, "but we are also definitely interested in drawing the middle and higher handicap players, too."

All Around The Town...

...WITH LEE

'Twas Terrific

THE AUDIENCE seeing "Babes in Toyland" over the past week-end were treated to a rare musical performance as Quirk School's talented cast played to 'Standing room only' crowds. We could see, too, a future Ethel Merman as cute little Linda Burwell really belted out her numbers as she played the role of Jane.

Costumes, sets, lighting, make-up, and a terrific orchestra all played a part in making the operetta a delight for youngsters and grown-ups alike.

Director Keith Drayton is to be commended for the stamina and integrity (spelled G-U-T-S) it takes to oversee a project of this one's magnitude. We understand the production was over two months in the making and only the co-operation of his cast, their parents, and Quirk School's personnel could make "Babes in Toyland" the success it proved to be Friday and Saturday evenings.

Lest we slight anyone, we found a possible Julie Andrews in Contrary Mary, Debbie Rice; and two future Comedians in Kenn Smith and Edward Rice, who played the humorous, but rather inept outlaws. The Widow Piper, Vicki Coshatt, proved she had the ideal voice as she scolded, bossed, and managed her rather large menage with an iron hand -- and voice.

The wicked villain, Barnaby, played most aptly by David Bauer, reminded us of Jack Lemmon, the ne're-do-well in the cinema's "Great Race." Tom, played by Tim O'Harris and Alan, by John Brooks, completed the list of star performers who added their tonsils and personalities to a truly delightful show.

HOME -- AND ENTERTAINING

MRS. WILLIAM REKSHAN (Cal), of North Shore drive, is home again after an absence of some six weeks -- three of which were spent with her doctor husband and a medical group touring Africa. Then it was another three weeks in London, England with good friends and former Bellevillites, John and Nona Andrews, while Dr. Rekshan flew home to duties in Ann Arbor.

Last Friday, in honor of Nona Andrews, who was in the area with her husband for a week's visit, Cal entertained at a bridge luncheon.

Saying 'hello' and hearing all about John's interesting new assignment as head of "Ford-Europe" in London were Lois Nash, Teddi Farres and Ginny Happel, of Ypsilanti, Marge Jahr, Helen Miller, Arlene Stead, Beulah Richards, Phyllis Schmidt, Margaret Gollwitzer, and Dorothy Clark.

PARTY TIME

THE RENTON sisters, Janette and Joyce, decided it was time for a party last Friday evening and invited some 25 of their friends to join them for festivities at their Sheldon road home. Janette had fellow freshman in from B.H.S. while Joyce's list included her eighth grade classmates at the Junior High. Outdoor games -- baseball, croquet, etc. -- filled the hours till sunset when the group moved indoors for dancing.

MR. & MRS. ED GORDON

Ed Gordons To Mark Golden Year Sunday

Lela and Ed Gordon are receiving congratulations this week in anticipation of their golden wedding anniversary and are asking all their friends to help them celebrate the big event this coming Sunday, June 2, at an open house at the First Methodist Church from 3 to 6 p.m. No gifts, please!

The Gordons were married at Central Methodist Church, on Grand Circus Park, Detroit, June 3, 1918, and took the traditional (then almost mandatory) honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls which was somewhat shortened due to Ed's enlistment in the U. S. Navy for World War I and for which he was then awaiting call to active duty. Lela was employed at the U. S. Lighthouse Service until after her husband's return from service in 1919.

Ed went on to achieve a record of almost a half-century in the banking business. They moved to Belleville in 1946 where he was employed at the Peoples State Bank, then under direction of Frank Clark. In 52 he accepted the position of cashier of the Peoples State Bank of New Boston, later becoming vice-president and a director. In 1961 the New Boston Bank merged with the Security Bank of Lincoln Park and Ed remained as vice-president and manager of the New Boston Branch until 1964 when he retired.

Ed joined the Kiwanis Club of Belleville as a charter member in 1946 and went on to 22 years of perfect attendance, serving the Club in a number of capacities including that of Lieutenant Governor of Division Six in 1965, being now the only charter member still active in the Club.

and Coffelt have volunteered the use of their home.

Some 14 members of the family will attend, arriving from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Michigan. Ed's entire family of four sisters and one brother survive, the brother James A. Gordon, of Detroit, having been best man at the wedding. The maid of honor, Miss Lella Stock, lives in Florida and will be unable to attend.

The Gordons have one child, a daughter, Mrs. Theodore E. Ridley, of Dearborn Heights. They have two grandsons, Gordon T. and Paul E.

The Gordons now reside in the Lake Terrace Apartment on Liberty street having recently sold their home on E. Huron River drive.

Three Young Authors Get Certificates

BELLEVILLE -- Three students from the Denton Elementary School, 49522 Cross, Van Buren Township, were among 850 boys and girls that attended the Young Authors' Conference held at Oakland University, Rochester, on April 22.

The three young girl students were Lena Messer, a sixth grader; and Michele Good and Barbara Messer, both fifth graders.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Kerrigan, fifth grade teacher.

On Monday, May 22, the three girls received personal certificates from Harry Hahn, Professor of Education at Oakland University. A letter accompanying the certificates of attendance said in part:

"April 22nd was a memorable day for the staff of the School of Education of Oakland University as we were privileged to play host to more than 850 boys and girls who eagerly attended our second Young Authors' Conference. The evaluations they wrote following the meeting were, once more, positive. It is evident that they were proud to be young authors and appreciated and enjoyed the contributions of fellow authors."

"Please extend to all the young people who participated or tried to participate in this program my heartiest congratulations. The quality of the material was excellent and the spirits and attitude of all those who visited our campus was exemplary."

Major James Kruthers Awarded Flying Cross

BELLEVILLE -- Major James M. Kruthers, USMC, husband of the former Elaine Scothorn of Belleville, is the recipient of the Distinguished Flying Cross for aerial action over Vietnam, it was disclosed Monday.

Miss Elaine Scothorn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Scothorn of 12189 Ryznar Road.

The award to Major Kruthers was presented by Col. Glenn E. Norris, commanding officer of the NROTC Unit at RPI.

The citation commended him for heroism and extraordinary achievement while acting as flight leader of a section of F4 Phantom aircraft assigned to provide close air support for a surrounded Marine reconnaissance patrol and two Marine helicopters shot down northwest of Khe Sanh.

The citation said in part: "Despite darkness, adverse weather and intense enemy anti-aircraft fire, Major Kruthers fearlessly continued his attack and delivered his ordinance with unerring accuracy on the hostile position. His actions were instrumental in the safe extraction of the besieged Marines."

Major Kruthers flew 235 combat missions in Vietnam while earning 13 Air Medals and the Navy Commendation medal with Combat V. He served with VMFA-542 and on the Marine Aircraft Group 13 staff at Da Nang and Chu Lai.

He and his wife are parents of three boys and now reside in New York while Major Kruthers attends Post-Graduate training at RPI.

Upon graduation in June, they will be assigned to MCAS, Beaufort, S. C.

ANN ARBOR -- Nothing is more urgently needed in Wayne County than a system of community colleges, according to Dr. Charles E. Morton, a member of the State Board of Education and pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church in Detroit.

Morton discussed this need with producer Tom Rieke in a half-hour radio program recorded at WUOM, the University of Michigan Broadcasting Service, for use by radio stations in the Detroit metropolitan area before the June 10 election of trustees for the proposed Wayne County Community College System.

Seven trustees will be elected from seven districts within the county.

Morton cited two reasons why the need for community colleges is urgent. First, they would protect the existing four-year institutions, which are engaged in research and the advancement of knowledge, highly specialized and growing crowded.

Yet Morton says there is a need for the training of people for social betterment and welfare, and the second reason for urgency is the rising expectations of people.

BELLEVILLE -- City Council approved the purchase of property on Potter Street in a special council meeting Monday.

A resolution calling for the payment of $3,600 for land and structure on Lot 331, Huron Park No. One Subdivision to permit storm sewer improvement in the area was adopted.

Mayor Royce E. Smith reported that the site purchase when completed will provide an outlet for a drainage into the lake.

Action on disposing of the city's two lift stations, located in the general area of Potter Street, was delayed pending a report from the City Attorney.

The stations (pumps), Mayor R. Smith reported, have reached over capacity and plans are underway to rid the city of them in a proposed sewer program.

Six New Post Office Facilities Are Planned for 15th District

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Plans for new post office buildings in Lincoln Park and Garden City were announced this week by Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District).

The two new offices bring

Alan M. Bird

BELLEVILLE -- Alan M. Bird has been elected Vice President of Sales for Pennsylvania Dutch Co. Inc., Mount Holly Springs, Pa., Lincoln A. Warrell, president, announced.

Bird, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Merrill Bird, of 73 Potter Drive, received his B.A. degree from Michigan State University, in the School of Business Administration and Marketing.

He has had extensive national field sales experience in the chocolate coating, confectionery, bakery and packaging industries.

Just prior to joining Pennsylvania Dutch, he was Field Sales Manager for Wilbur Chocolate Co., Littleton, Pennsylvania. He resides with his wife, Alice, and their three children in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and expects to relocate in Mount Holly Springs within the coming months.

to six the number of new post offices to be built in Congressman Ford's district. Already announced are postal facilities for Taylor, Westland, Dearborn Heights and Belleville.

The Lincoln Park Post Office, now in a Federally-owned 7,262-square-foot building on Southfield near Fort, will be housed in a new leased facility with approximately 82,000 square feet. John Shliven is acting Postmaster in Garden City.

Garden City's Post Office, now in a leased building of 8,812 square feet, will be located in a new leased facility with approximately 82,000 square feet. John Shliven is acting Postmaster in Garden City.

PLANS FOR both new offices were finalized recently after Ford invited municipal officials of Lincoln Park and Garden City to Washington to confer with Postmaster-General Lawrence F. O'Brien.

O'Brien, who has since been succeeded by Marvin Watson as Postmaster - General, announced approval of the two new post offices in one of his last official acts before resigning the postal position.

Congressman Ford said that surveys are under way in both Lincoln Park and Garden City to select sites for the new buildings, which will be constructed by private owners, and then leased to the Federal Government on a long-term basis.

BELLEVILLE -- Western Michigan University has listed 800 students on the winter (second) semester Dean's List, including 89 who earned all "A" grades.

Among the students listed were Robert Douglas Buss, 47008 Denton road; and Miss Judy Ann Thompson, 20680 Sherwood road.

under way for some time in Westland and Belleville and were launched recently in Taylor.

The Taylor Post Office, now housed in a leased building of 8,766 square feet on Goddard Road near Telegraph, will be relocated in a facility nearly twice as large, with some 14,000 square feet. Stanley A. Grendal is Taylor's postmaster.

THE POST OFFICE Department last year approved plans for an independent post office for Westland, which now receives mail service through the city of Wayne. The new facility will have some 32,000 square feet.

Belleville now has a post office building with only 3,528 square feet of interior space. Ford said that the new building will have 5,386 square feet of area. A location survey has been underway for more than a year, and a decision is expected in the near future. Raymond J. O'Neil is postmaster in Belleville.

A location at Ford Road and Kinlock has already been established for the Dearborn Heights Post Office, which is now being operated in a temporary trailer facility at Beech-Daly and Ford roads, under the direction of Acting-Postmaster Roy E. Webster.

The new Dearborn Heights Post Office will have 8,216 square feet of interior area.

Approval of the new post offices came after Congressman Ford, in 1966, asked the Post Office Department to make a complete study of postal facilities in Western Wayne County.

As a result of this study, the entire city of Westland was incorporated into one postal zone, served through Wayne, and plans were launched for a separate, independent office. Previously, Westland (formerly Nankin Township) had been divided into postal zones served by Inkster, Garden City, Plymouth and Wayne.

Approval of the new facilities in Taylor, Lincoln Park, Garden City, Belleville and Dearborn Heights also came about as a result of the study requested by Congressman Ford.

Huron Offices Close May 30-31

NEW BOSTON -- The Huron Township Offices will be closed on May 30 and May 31 in observance of the Memorial Day weekend. Mrs. Wilma Wilson, township clerk, announced.

She also announced that the regular Township Board meeting will be held on June 11 instead of June 12 because of Huron School Graduation Ceremonies.

You'll love it! A history-riding Pêche island pre-opening ferryboat cruise

Be one of the first* to enjoy the return of ferryboats to our magnificent and historical Detroit River.

*Exactly 26 years ago Ferryboat Service was discontinued on the Detroit River.

The Pêche Island ferryboat fleet is new... safe... clean... comfortable... and painted bright Pêche Island red to tell the whole world that Windsor and Detroit have once again opened the beautiful Detroit River to residents and visitors who would like to see how our cities look from the water.

Safest boats in service anywhere... all steel construction.

The Pêche Island Ferryboats are the safest, most modern craft in use on the Great Lakes. Powered by the most advanced turbo-charged diesel engines and built of steel, the Pêche Island Ferryboats surpass the strictest safety requirements of the Department of Transport. Each boat is operated by a licensed captain and first mate.

Where, When and How to Board Ferryboats for the One-Hour Pêche Island Pre-Opening Cruise, beginning 9 a.m., Thursday, May 30.

From Windsor:
The boats leave downtown Windsor at the foot of Ouellette Street from 9 a.m. to midnight. This dock is located directly behind the British-American Hotel. Parking is available in the immediate area in public and private parking lots.

Tickets are sold on the boat. The price of the round-trip one-hour Pêche Island Pre-Opening Cruise from downtown Windsor is $1.95 for adults and $1.00 for children between 5 and 12.

For additional Windsor information call (1-519) 735-2157.

From Detroit:
Passengers boarding the ferryboats in downtown Detroit may park in any of the Cobo Hall area parking lots. The Pêche Island Pre-Opening Cruise dock site is located at the River on the Civic Center Drive at the West end of Cobo Hall, approximately 500 feet east of the foot of Third Street.

Passengers coming downtown on the Lodge Freeway may take the Wayne Exit directly onto the Cobo Hall Roof Parking Area. Passengers coming from Washington Boulevard, Larned, Congress, East Jefferson or Atwater may park in any of the Cobo Hall Garages or in the Veterans Building parking lot. The dock site is on the river, directly behind the west end of Cobo Hall.

Information to help you plan your Pêche Island ferryboat cruise.

Tickets will be sold on the Ferryboats from 9 a.m. to midnight.

The one-hour round trip Pêche Island Pre-Opening Cruise fare is $1.95 for adults and $1.00 for children between 5 and 12.

For additional information on the Detroit cruise, call (1-313) 963-9555.

Each boat has a sundeck which seats 60 passengers on roomy contour fiberglass seats. The lower level accommodates 140 people on comfortable vinyl covered foam seats. Two rest rooms serve passengers. A snack bar features sandwiches, cold and hot drinks and other food items.

Your guide will describe how a small group of Frenchmen in 1701 founded Windsor and Detroit... how the cities were named... interesting facts about the River, the Great Lakes, the Tunnel, the Bridge... how the two cities were one until 1798... how a British Commander settled the International Boundary problem... how the Indians lived on Pêche Island... David Dunbar Bulek's brilliant plan to celebrate Detroit's 200th Birthday... the life of Hiram Walker... 1968 Plans for the International-Freedom Festival and hundreds of other historical facts and anecdotes that will make your unusual Pêche Island Pre-Opening Cruise an event you will always remember.

Because the Pêche Island Ferryboats do not stop until your return to the downtown Windsor or Detroit dock where you boarded, there is no customs or immigration inspection.

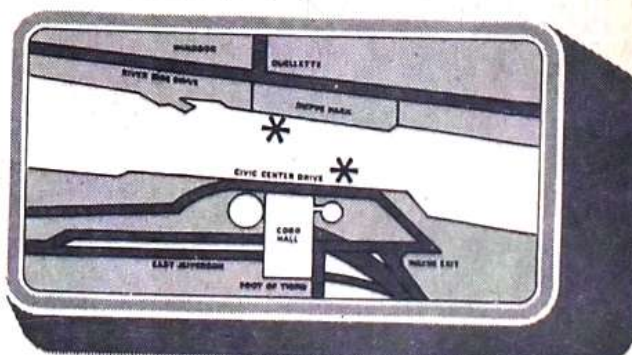

You will be given a passing visit and description of the facilities being readied on exciting and historic Pêche Island, which will be opened to the public for the first time in history July 1, 1968.

You'll love it! Make your plans NOW to be among the first to enjoy a Pêche Island Pre-Opening Cruise. Reservations are now being accepted for Special Group Programs on Pêche Island beginning July 1. Phone: Detroit (1-313) 963-9555 and Windsor (1-519) 735-2157 for details.

What facilities are offered on the Pêche Island Ferryboats?

Does a guide point out sights along the river?

Does the ferryboat stop? What custom and immigration problems are there?

New 4-H Weather Project Is Now Available to Youth

H ave you ever wondered why it's hot -- or why it's cold? Why does it rain or why does it snow? Why does the wind blow? Will it be sunshine tomorrow or rain? The answers to these and many more questions can be found in a new 4-H project on Weather, available now to Michigan youth, Robert W. Paulson, Extension 4-H -- Youth Agent in Wayne County, announced.

New Film On Scouts Produced

"Jamboree for Friendship," a new full-color film on the Boy Scouts' 12th World Jamboree, is now in general distribution throughout the United States and will soon be released in appropriate languages throughout the world. Produced as the official film record of the Jamboree, it was sponsored by Ex-Cell-O Corporation and the suppliers of Pure-Pak cartons. The film emphasizes the virtues of Scouting and international friendship, and the advantages of an active life, sound nutrition and a creative mind.

When the klipspringer, an African antelope, jumps, the movement is so fast it seems it was released by a spring.

geared to all ages and will be of special interest to young people 9-14 years of age. The first unit, Understanding Weather, introduces the basic elements which create our weather. A number of experiments in this unit will delight the member and mystify his friends. The next step is the actual construction of a weather station and the instruments needed to observe weather conditions. And the third unit puts these instruments to work and shows the member how to actually forecast weather.

A COMPLETE packet of leader guide materials is provided which makes the project a completely self-contained kit for any leader even though they have no prior understanding of weather.

A leaders workshop for the Weather Project is being sponsored by the Michigan 4-H Foundation, Nov. 3-4, at Camp Kett near Cadillac. Anyone interested in the new Weather Project is urged to phone or write Robert W. Paulson at the County Office of the Co-operative Extension Service located at 5455 S. Wayne road, P.O. Box 550, Wayne, Michigan 48184, or telephone 721-6550 for additional information.

A Man For All Seasons Opens at Wayside Theater

Paul Scofield won international acclaim as Thomas More, the man whom Henry the Eighth could not destroy but could not conquer, in the prize-winning Robert Bolt drama originally presented in London, and then on Broadway.

Now, Scofield has won the Academy Award as best actor of the year for his performance in Fred Zinnemann's multi-"Oscar" film version of "A Man For All Seasons"; at the Wayside Theatre in Technicolor.

It is a Columbia Pictures release, produced and directed by Zinnemann and co-starring Wendy Hiller, Leo McKern, Robert Shaw, Orson Welles and Susannah York.

"A Man For All Seasons" has won the following Academy Awards:

- Best Picture of the Year.
- Best Actor, Paul Scofield.
- Best Director, Fred Zinnemann.
- Best Screenplay from another medium, Robert Bolt.
- Best Color Photography, Ted Moore, B.S.C.
- Best Color Costume Design, Elizabeth Haffenden and Joan Bridge.

ONE OF the most prestigious of all British actors, Scofield had appeared in only three motion pictures before agreeing to re-create his Thomas More role for the screen. Tall and handsomely distinguished, he is rated with Sir Laurence Olivier and Richard Burton as one of the three outstanding actors working in the English language.

Olivier and Burton are more immediately glamorous but Scofield is more of a legend with an almost mystical aura surrounding his name. Since his arrival on the theatrical scene he has defended his privacy with passion.

Scofield first stepped onto a stage at the age of 13 in a boy's school production of "Romeo and Juliet."

ON GRADUATION, he enrolled at the Croydon Repertory and, a year later, made his professional debut in John Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln."

He appeared in repertory and,

In time, for three seasons at Stratford-on-Avon where his performance as "Hamlet" was highly lauded. In 1960, Paul Scofield stepped onto the stage of London's Globe Theatre and into the role that contributed more to making him an international celebrity than any other -- that of Thomas More in Robert Bolt's highly-honored "A Man For All Seasons." Scofield later brought the play to Broadway and further fame.

Group Gets Huron Used Book Sale Information Listed

BELLEVILLE -- The Huron Valley Conservation Association Club was once again honored, last week with the presence of Ken Cracknell, District 7 Representative of Michigan United Conservation Clubs, who presented the club with its charter as a member of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs.

Membership in this organization affords the H.V.C.A. with a voice at the state level with which to present local conservation problems that are of a magnitude too large to be handled locally. It also gives Belleville area a local voice in the state hunting, fishing and conservation legislation, Wendell K. Howell, Club President, said.

The Huron Valley Conservation Association is experiencing a sound rapid growth and will soon pass the century mark with its membership.

Among the most recent crop of new members was Terry Troutt, former State Senator from Romulus. Troutt has had a long standing interest in conservation and is an avid sportsman. While in Lansing, he was active in these areas.

The Association is currently planning a membership picnic for the month of July, James W. Hable, Publicity Chairman, announced.

Everyone is reminded that the next regular meeting of the H.V.C.A. will be held at 7:30 p.m., June 10, at Rogalle's Banquet Room, located at I-94 Expressway and Haggerty Road.

NEW BOSTON -- The Huron School Used Book Sale will be held Aug. 26 through Sept. 6, it was announced Monday.

Students are asked to turn in used books for sale during June 10 to June 14 period during the hours of 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

SAC's 'Aerial Gas Stations' ... Keep Em Flying

306th. Bomb Wing (SAC)
McCoy Air Force Base

AERIAL GAS STATIONS

...The free world's real secret weapon!

Twenty four hours a day, the United States Air Force maintains constant vigilance in the skies throughout most of the world. Vanguard of these patrols are the aircraft of the Strategic Air Command, better known to the average citizen as "SAC".

The mighty B-52 Superfortress and B-58 Hustler bombers of this air arm are the key factor to discourage any attack on American soil. Fully armed and primed for any situation that may arise, a certain percentage of SAC's aircraft are airborne around the clock.

While this huge deadly-detering and counter-attacking aerial force is one of our main lines of defense kept aloft by the U.S. Air Force, the project is possible because of one main big factor, the seldom heard of, but always in the background, the jet aerial tankers, the "aerial gas stations."

The air-to-air refueling of the bomber forces and fighter aircraft too, give the U.S. combat forces all over the world unlimited mobility on missions and long-distance flights.

Aerial refueling has come a long way since the early experimental days, when a hose trailed by one aircraft was grabbed out of the air by a man standing up in an open cockpit and inserted in the receiving airplanes filler pipe.

In the post war years, after much experimenting, the Boeing Aircraft Company in August, 1952, announced that they were venturing forth on a privately financed jet transport project and the first prototype of the now world famous jet the Boeing "707," took off of its first flight on July 15, 1954. A short time later, on Aug. 5, 1954, the Air Force announced that it would purchase a limited number of advanced design jet tanker-transport.

By this time aerial refueling had been recognized as a vital key for future Air Force operations and an earlier Boeing transport the KC-97 had become a real workhorse prior to the advent of the jet age. On Jan. 31, 1957, the USAF accepted the first KC-135 jet aerial tanker and by mid June of the same year the first KC-135 was placed into operational service with the Strategic Air Command.

This was only the beginning of a fabulous chronology this jet tanker was to write in the coming years. Before the year was over, in November of 1957, the KC-135 flew a record flight from Washington, D.C. to Buenos Aires, Argentina of 6,325 miles in a little over 11 hours.

Other records were to follow such as, Tokyo to the Azores, a new non-stop record distance of 10,228 miles 18 hours 47 minutes. New York to London in 5 hours 27 minutes just to name a few.

Meanwhile amidst these early record-breaking flights in November of 1957, B-52 bombers on long-range missions were aerially refueled for the first time.

Nor did the KC-135 stop at speed, distance and endurance records. In 1958 the KC-135 went on national record books for carrying the greatest payload of 78,089 pounds. Beside the aerial tanker model many other versions were built for uses by the Air Force, such as flying command posts, pure transports, electronic reconnaissance and even photo mapping.

The air-to-air refueling of a giant bomber or fighter aircraft requires the finest of air crews and training in this branch of the air arm is endless.

The most ticklish job of the four man crew is the one of the "Boom Operator." This crewman lies prone on a pallet and looks to rear through a tiny window toward the new hi-speed boom which actually consists of four concentric machined aluminum tubes and when stowed away has a length of 28 feet. During refueling operations it can be extended to a full length of 47 feet.

As the aircraft to be refueled approaches from the rear, the operator of the boom directs the pilot of the receiver aircraft by either radio or director lights into a position where he can then fly the boom into the receiving receptacle. Because the giant boom has two "rud-deviators" the boom operator literally flies the boom into place for the connection.

After contact is made, the boom operator signals the tanker pilot, who controls pumping operations and fuel transfer management. The tanker's aircraft commander maintains his aircraft position and any adjustment in the receivers position is done at the direction of the boom operator.

Here, out of sight, thousands of feet in the sky, the "aerial gas station" can transfer three tons of fuel into a B-52 bomber in three minutes without interrupting or diverting the bombers course while flying along at 400 m.p.h.

The Strategic Air Commands 306th. Bomb Wing at McCoy Air Force Base recently returned from a tour over Southeast Asia, better known to most as Vietnam. The heavy deadly B-52 Superfortress bombers are in the headlines of the world's press everyday, but wherever the Wing is deployed around the world, its two squadrons of KC-135 tankers accompany them.

The 306 Aerial Refueling Squadron, commanded by Lt. Col. Charles Lowe and the 919 Aerial Refueling Squadron, commanded by Lt. Col. William Martin, have both posted over 150 missions over Southeast Asia.

Under the command of Col. Gail D. Roberts, the entire 306 Bomb Wing was cited for exceptionally meritorious achievement while participating in combat operations in Southeast Asia, plus maintaining an outstanding record of performances of non-combat operations.

Many a bomber crew or fighter pilot who suddenly found that the fuel level of his aircraft was at a critical stage, far from home, can testify to the "good feeling" of seeing that tanker loom ahead with the life-saving fuel.

And even with the war-torn skies around him, the pilot of the receiver aircraft can't help but supplement his "good feeling" with a hearty chuckle when some young airman, who is the boom operator in the tanker quips as the refueling is completed. "...Would you like me to clean your windshield too sir?"

AERIAL GAS STATION AT WORK--The Strategic Air Command's KC-135 jet tanker refueling a B-52 Superfortress thousands of feet in the sky while flying along at 400 M.P.H. A ton of fuel per minute is transferred to the hungry bomber which is just about what an average car owner would use in an entire year.

HEART OF A TANKER - The aerial telescoping boom that is directed to a receiving aircraft to be refueled while flying on a mission is examined by airman of the 306

Bomb Wing, Sergeants E. Ellis, C. Randall and R. Cassels make a final check of the extended to 47 feet during air-to-air refueling.

MAJESTIC AND HUGE--On the ground the SAC tanker presents a massive appearance. With a full load, the KC-135 weighs more than 250,000 pounds, but can fly 4,000 miles at speeds over 600 m.p.h.

From Eyes and Years:

Helping the Helpers

By ROBERT WEBSTER

THIS WEEK I HAVE a remarkable story of William Bair, a Methodist layman, who serves as a supply minister for several Pennsylvania churches. Bair told us that his Father was a millionaire, owning a bank that could supply his every need.

He cited many incidents to prove his statement. He said he used to suffer terribly from epileptic seizures, the attacks finally becoming so severe that the state was going to take away his driver's license. Thirteen years ago, God healed him of this affliction and it has never troubled him since. He spoke in glowing terms of his wife, who has always had a wonderful gift of working with children. Because of several operations, she was not supposed to be able to bear children. In spite of this, God gave them two lovely children of their own.

In addition, they adopted five other youngsters.

Referring to the terrible mental anguish suffered by children who feel they are neglected and rejected, he told of little kids doing very foolish and even dangerous stunts in order to attract attention. In one case, a child old enough to know better, deliberately ran in front of cars to gain notice. Experiences of this nature gradually built up a great concern for unfortunate children.

He advised not to start praying unless you mean business, because God only does business with persons who mean business.

Bair often prayed that the Lord would bless his business and his family and started a bank account in order to take them on pleasure trips and excursions to various parts of the country. They were literally showered with blessings.

The time came, however, when every child without shoes convicted them and he realized that he was only spoiling his own children by gratifying their every whim.

God called him to be willing to give up his job, his property and all that he had and to put himself completely at God's disposal.

He was shown the great need in three major areas. Underprivileged children, delinquent youth and senior citizens. He was compared to the barren fig tree and impressed to give up material things and trust the Lord for the future. He told his congregation that he was quitting his job and dedicating all that he had to the Lord, including his wife. He said God did more with his wife in a few weeks than he had been able to do in 18 years. His wife joined wholeheartedly in the venture as God promised to supply their every need.

The first child offered them was a 9-year-old boy, who was regarded as a junior outlaw by all the neighbors, none of whom had a good word to say for him. Under the Bair's loving care, remarkable changes soon took place.

Bair spoke of a juvenile who was taken out of jail on Tuesday and placed in their custody. On Friday he gave his heart to Jesus.

Another youngster's mother was an alcoholic who was ready to take her own life. The Bair's were given the lad, who thought he was a mental case because the other kids called him "Jug-head." At first he declared he would stay only a few days but eventually decided he had found a home at last.

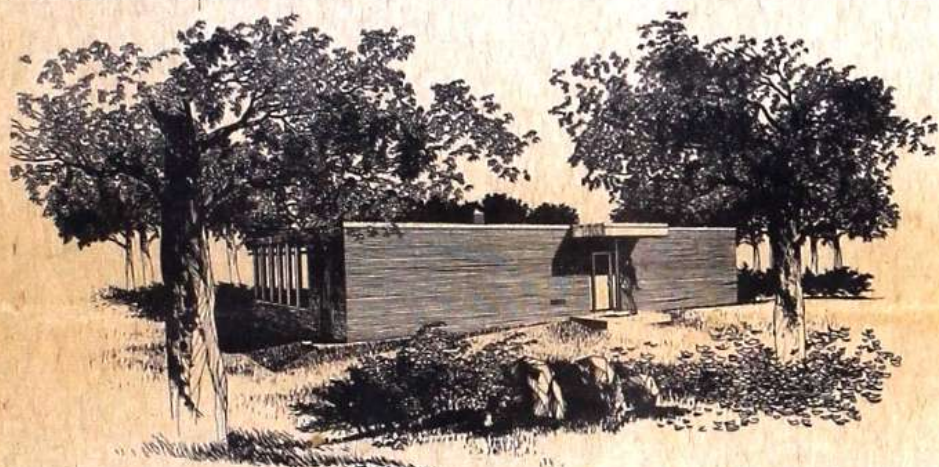

A doctor told Mr. Bair that he should see the doctor's brother. Remarkably, inside of a few days, the brother showed up. He had just bought a 190-acre farm with a big, four-bedroom stone house and other buildings. The farm bordered a lake and made an ideal place for the program to which they felt God had called them.

The farm was leased to them for $85 a month. About this time the Lord had spoken to Bob and Dorothy Taylor in Oklahoma and told them to go East. They were directed to take charge of the farm.

A man, whose aunt had just passed away, spoke to Bair in Pittsburgh, offering to donate whatever they wanted from her furniture, bedding, etc. When they returned to the farm home it was filled to overflowing. They needed a state charter for the Bair Foundation. This usually takes about eight months. This one took three days.

They needed a youth counsellor. Unknown to them, God had been educating and training a dedicated young man. When he came, his salary and expenses had been guaranteed by his home church. In the meantime, another farm has been added and $150,000 property donated.

Indeed, a fine example of God helping people who help people.

NATURE CENTER - An artist's rendering of the new Nature Orientation Center at Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills, now under construction, reflects its location in a woody three-acre plot immediately north of the Institute. Made possible by a grant from the Ford Motor Fund, the 2,000-sq.-ft. building will permit the Institute to expand its work in conservation, ecology, and earth and life sciences. It will provide full facilities for year-round use by youngsters and adults. The Center overlooks a system of informal trails leading to vegetation and land formation which offer, in small scale, examples of Michigan's ecological makeup. The Institute is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays and 1 to 5 p.m. on weekends. There is a small admission charge.

Bjerke's 4-hitter Tames Tigers

TITLE DREAMS SHATTERED, 1-0

AN IMPORTANT ONE, TOO

Ritthaler Loses 1st, 6-4

Even the "reliable ones" must have an off day. Romulus' Bob Ritthaler had his against Ecorse last week and he lost his first verdict of the season, 6-4.

That loss, however, ousted coach Lowell Johnson's Eagles from first place and they now trail Ecorse by a half-game in the stretch for the Twin Valley Conference title.

Ritthaler, who has been Johnson's most potent pitching weapon this season, gave up five consecutive hits in the sixth and Ecorse cashed in on them for five runs to turn a 3-1 deficit into a crucial victory.

The Romulus hurler had previously won five of six starts and pitched 46 innings in allowing only two earned runs.

Ecorse grabbed a one run first inning lead by Romulus answered with two runs in the bottom of the second to take command. The Eagles launched the rally with Charlie Stewart who walked and stole second and came home when Ed Clark's fly ball to center was dropped by the outfielder.

In the fifth, Romulus made it 3-1 as Seestedt doubled and Ritthaler singled him in.

Then came that fatal sixth and, after pitching four scoreless innings, Ecorse got to Ritthaler for five hits. He was replaced for Rick Paglia who doused the fire.

On Friday, Romulus avenged an earlier defeat to Belleville with a come-from-behind 11-3 victory over the Tigers and coach Vitold Kaminski.

The Eagles spotted the Tigers two homers and three runs in the first two innings, then came back and knocked Bill Lambert out of the box with a three-run third inning. They scored two more in the fourth, added another in the fifth, bagged four runs in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Paglia, working the entire distance, was credited with the victory. He gave up eight hits and fanned eight while walking one.

Lambert, relieved by John Yocum in the third after two were out, took the loss.

Those two homers stunned the Eagles. The first came in the opening inning with Paul Munn aboard. Gary Gentle latched on to his third round-tripper of the season to account for two of his team's runs while Lambert blasted another in the second.

But Romulus quickly recovered. Ray Horn, who had a double and single for Romulus, scored four times while both Tony Gray and Tom Block collected three hits in five trips to the plate.

Block socked in three RBIs -- all of his hits were singles -- while Gray bagged a pair of doubles and a single.

Seestedt, batting a hefty .413, also had a couple of two base hits in four trips.

In the third round, Romulus still must face Willow Run and Hamtramck. The Eagles travel to the Flyers' field tomorrow while the Cosmos will be Romulus' guest on Monday.

Bruce Bara, who also threw a three-hitter, was tagged for his second loss in six starts. He whiffed seven and walked two.

Bara, Gary Gentle, Norm Harrington and Bill Coffman each bagged singles to account for their team's hits.

Dick Wenzel walked two Plymouth batters but one of those came in the sixth with bases loaded and forced in what proved to be the winning run in Belleville's 2-1 downfall.

He allowed four hits and struck out six.

Plymouth scored in the bottom of the fourth but Gentle rapped a double with Wenzel aboard to tie it up in the fifth. Gentle wound up with a perfect three for three for the day. In nonleague competition, Belleville opened up with a 13-hit barrage to wallop Ypsilanti 10-2, to give John Yocum his second victory of the current campaign.

Yocum allowed six hits in his two strikeouts, one walk performance.

Harrington's triple with bases loaded in the sixth accounted for three of those 10 runs. He also had a single in his four trips. Teammates Bara and Gentle each had two for four while Gentle also latched on to a three-base hit.

Ron Smith blasted a double and single in three times up and Wilson Boone went two for three, both singles.

In their Wyandotte Invitational debut, Belleville nipped Grosse Ile - 2-0 on Boone's three-hitter. He notched nine strikeouts and walked two.

Bara became the hero of the day after fanning three successive times, he socked a double in the seventh with Harrington and Boone aboard to drive in the winning runs.

Huron Runs Second In Lake Shore

The first and last Lake Shore Conference track ruler is Mason. The defending champs extended their reign for the fourth and final year by turning back a field of three other teams in the League Meet last week.

The conference will be dissolved at the end of the school year.

Huron and coach Tom Grange, however, will have the satisfaction of running second to the perennial champ and not last. This is the first time that the Chiefs wound up out of the cellar and in a second place berth.

It is the best track finish for the Chiefs over the past four years.

Huron also had individual honors in Ed Smith and Jeff Reeves.

Smith has a double victory and captured the league title in the 220 with a 23.8. That time also was a new conference record and he tied the old 100-yard dash mark with a 10.6 for his second victory of the meet.

Smith is a 16-year-old sophomore who has earned two stripes in track and he'll be around when the Chiefs enter Huron Conference competition next season.

Huron also placed second in (See RUNS SECOND page 27)

DOWN IN -- Looking over Romulus' Tom Block's shoulders is Belleville's Wayne Suttles. Suttles and his teammates blew a three run lead against their nonleague rivals and lost the rematch 11-3 last week.

Eagle Tennis Team Wraps Up Season

Andy Kozarian polished off Ypsilanti's Rick Falstad for his ninth victory in 12 starts but Romulus was left on the short end of a 5-2 decision with the Braves.

Kozarian won the first set 6-4 and then cleaned up with a 6-3 for one of the Eagles' victories. Teammates Howard Meyers and Ted Gilliland pulled their talents in a two set win over Dave Brent and Bob Murray.

The Romulus No. 2 doubles chalked up a 6-4 first set win and returned for a 7-5 verdict.

Coach Zane Kuryllw's Eagles wound up in third place in the Twin Valley Conference with a 2-4 record while they finished with an overall 5-9 mark.

None of the Romulus players qualified for the State Meet. They were wiped out in Regional play last Saturday.

Franklin Wins W. Wayne Golf Title

By BOB McClellan, Jr.

In an unprecedented finish for the Western Wayne Golf Championship, two schools, Livonia Franklin and John Glenn were forced to settle their dispute for the title with a "Sudden death" playoff.

The two golf rivals finished the 18-hole Salem Hills course with 351 totals and the meet was forced to go to the "Extra hole". And the Patriots came up with a three stroke, 20-23 victory over Glenn and coach Earl Bryant to capture the coveted title.

Both rivals had finished the day with 351's and it was the first time in the history of the meet that two teams tied for the lead.

All alone in third place went Belleville which produced a 360 team total. The knot was tied again for fourth place honors as Garden City West and Cherry Hill both emerged from the battle with 369 while Garden City East, with a 378 finish, was sixth and Wayne Memorial fitted into the seventh place slot with a 383.

West's Ron Smith, who fired an 82, wound up with medalist honors, while one stroke back was Glenn's Bill Schuster with an 83.

Smith had a 43 in the first round and on the back nine carded a 39 for his individual victory while the runnerup bagged a 41 and came up with a 42 for the second nine.

Among the coaches, Cherry Hill's Jim Henr proved tops when he turned in an 80 for his day's efforts and in the athletic director's bracket, Belleville's Harry Hidenfelter carded a 93 to finish first.

Belleville Finishes 6th In Meet

A frustrating sixth place finish in the Suburban Six Conference didn't discourage Belleville linksmen and coach Bill Brandell any this week as the Tigers recovered to place third at the Western Wayne meet.

At the league meet, Belleville accumulated a total of 361 team points to trail far behind the newly crowned champ, Redford Union, which topped the field with an impressive 326.

Bob Perry, with an 84, led the Tiger team. He was followed close behind by David Brownly, a 85 shooter for the day. Chris Lowersonson bagged a 94 while Skip Summer wound up with a 98.

Franklin managed a four stroke, 168-172, victory over the Tigers with Brownly's 38 as the best for the losers. Bob Perry shot a 42 and Dummer finished his round with a 45. Gene Turney carded a 47.

Perry's 85 led the team in the Western Wayne Golf tournament.

THE AGONY -- Romulus' Tom Block was called out as he slid home in this play against Belleville. That action took place in the two non-conference rivals' first encounter. In the rematch on Friday, Romulus' agony turned to ecstasy as the Eagles rallied to a 11-3 victory to avenge the earlier defeat.

3 Errors In Sixth Help Mason Beat Huron, 4-3

Five errors in the last two innings of play cost Huron and coach Ron Smith a 4-3 decision against Mason Friday. The Chiefs had a two-run lead going into the sixth but Mason scored three times in the sixth and again in the seventh with the aim of a porous defense to pull out the Lake Shore Conference win.

Coach Smith's boys took the lead in the fourth inning on back-to-back homers by Gary Gorham and Doug Hicks.

After losing pitcher Jim Inman turned back the Mason battery in order in the fifth, the Chiefs committed three errors in that fatal fifth to give up the lead, 3-2. They never regained it.

Mason increased the margin in the seventh with another earned run while Huron collected its final run on singles by Al Michling and Ron Edmonds and a base hit by Harold McIntosh.

Inman threw an eight-hitter at his league rivals and struck out five while he allowed one base on balls.

Bill Shellenbarger hurled a six hitter in shutting out the Chiefs 10-0 in nonleague action last week. The Glenn hurler whiffed eight and walked one in his second win of the season.

Ron Edmonds, a junior southpaw, went the distance for the Chiefs and took the loss. Hegot four strikeouts and walked two.

Michling again picked up a pair of hits to maintain his .400 plus batting average while Jim Wells, Doug Hicks, Jerry Duleck and Ed Tupacz each rapped out singles.

Jefferson rallied for two runs (See 3 ERRORS page 27)

Little Margie Gasps for Life ... Special Hospital Responds

By JOYCE HAGELTHORN

ONCE UPON A TIME there was a little girl named Margie who was 10 years old, but who stood no taller than her five-year old friend.

Now you've seen small children, but Margie was different. She wasn't naturally small. . . she had been made small by the ravages of asthma. When Margie was less than two months old it was discovered that she was allergic to all of the food products she was being fed, and by the time she was a year old, she was a victim of asthma.

For the next four years the baby lived in the shadow of death, and there were times when her parents watched helplessly as the little tot writhed on the floor, her face distorted in agony, gasping for breath. . . the very breath of life.

And her parents heard of the Children's Asthma Research Institute and Hospital (Carih), the pioneer facility which treats and cares for, free of charge, the intractable asthmatics. Carih doesn't care what race or what religion the asthma victim happens to be. Carih's only concern is to help the victim who can no longer receive help from the family physician, and while helping those children, Carih continues with its research. . . searching for the causes of asthma and other allergic diseases.

Margie's parents wrote to the hospital in Denver, and working through their own physician, they made arrangements for Margie to be admitted. This was possible, for Margie had been diagnosed as an intractable asthmatic, and Carih only has room for children who cannot be helped anywhere else.

Intractable asthma is defined as a severe, unmanageable, chronic, asthmatic condition which persists despite conventional medical treatment given for at least one year.

Margie's parents were delighted to find that Carih resembles the campus of a fine private school, tucked away at the foot of the magnificent Rocky Mountains.

They found that Carih's building complex contains residential cottages, a hospital with complete intensive care facilities, special asthma treatment room, medical laboratories and desensitization clinic, examining rooms, medical, psychological and nursing service areas, dental clinic and x-ray facilities.

There was also a modern kitchen supervised by a registered dietitian, a dining hall which can seat the entire population of Carih at one time plus a recreational area.

The research building which is staffed with scientists from many fields, is devoted entirely to basic research.

Margie was left with a number of other girls of her own age in a lovely cottage, presided over by a warm, understanding houseparent. It is felt that children fare better grouped together with other children with the same affliction, for in this way they soon lose the feeling that they are so different from other youngsters.

Margie was a little worse off than most of the children, but she was fortunate in one way. She did respond to treatment. . . and she had a tremendous will to live and grow well.

Through the next months she grew two inches, and gained 15 pounds. She was the pride of her houseparent, the joy of her cottage mates, and her doctors watched over her as if she were a rare jewel.

It was almost time for her to go home. . . a well little girl.

And then tragedy struck.

One day the children were being taken into the hills for a picnic. As they were boarding the bus, Margie complained that she didn't feel well. . . her stomach was upset. . . and she wanted to stay home.

The counselor let her go back to the cottage, urging her to be sure and let the houseparent know she had returned, but like most little kids, Margie forgot.

She went up to her room and lay down on her bed. . . and it was then the attack came. She groveled about on the bed, clutching at her throat, gasping for a smidgin of air, panicky and almost wild with foreboding. But the past few months had taught Margie one thing, as it teaches all youngsters who stay at Carih. That one thing that had been pounded into the children was to never panic during an attack. To stop and think and plan for rescue.

Margie rolled from the bed, and with her last remaining strength she clutched her shoe and pounded it once. . . twice. . . three times against the bed railing. . . and the houseparent heard the noise and came to investigate.

By the time Margie was gotten to the clinic, she was clinically dead. Her windpipe had completely closed, and her heart had stopped beating.

But the doctors went to work on her. One massaged her heart, while life-saving shots were given. Oxygen was pumped into her lungs.

The doctors worked frantically. . . for they had only four minutes. After that it would be too late.

Finally, as the second-hand zipped about the clock, and only one minute was left, the machine gave a tiny click. . . a click which meant that Margie's heart was beginning to beat. From one click to two, to three, and finally as the four minutes were up, Margie's heart was beating regularly. . . and Margie was saved.

It took a few more months to get Margie firmly on the road to health, but she is now at home with her parents and her brothers and sisters. . . healthy and happy and alive, because Carih had the medical team and the facilities that brought a small girl back to life, and put her back on the way to getting well.

Carih is the only center solely devoted to finding the causes of asthma and other allergic diseases. After Carih's course of treatment 80 percent of the patients are either asthma-free or improved to such a degree they require little or no medication. While some of the remaining 20 percent still require medication, they are also considered greatly improved as they are able to participate in all activities appropriate for their ages. They can also attend school regularly, and not miss the 30 to 90 days they had previously missed.

The average asthma victim is kept at Carih for 18 to 24 months and parents may visit their children every 4 to 6 months, at the discretion of the professional staff.

In Detroit, a chapter has been formed, mainly composed of mothers of asthma victims, to help others find a way to send their severely ill children to Carih, as well as to raise funds to help support the hospital in its care of their youngsters and in its untiring, unending research program.

Today the hospital can accommodate 165 patients.

"If any parent is interested in starting a chapter in any other part of the metropolitan section, we would be most happy to meet with them and talk with them," Mrs. Ramona Surma, president of the Northwest Chapter said.

"If any reader has a severely asthmatic child," Mrs. Surma said, "he should have his doctor write the Department of Admissions, CARIH, 3401 West 19th Avenue, Denver, Colorado, 80204, giving the child's birthdate, sex and school grade. . . highlights of medical history, including pattern and severity of asthma and pertinent diagnostic studies. He should also give past treatment in general terms, a list of doctors, clinics, or hospitals by whom the child has been examined and current status and medications (including steroids, if used.)

"The doctor should also explain the necessity or urgency he feels for admission."

For further information on getting a chapter going in this area, call Mrs. Ramona Surma, 563-3794. Through your chapter another Margie might be saved.

Huron Park Beckons to Area Residents

A wide variety of recreation, including swimming, will be available at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park, a 1,000-acre park along the Huron River near Belleville, during the four-day holiday from Memorial Day, Thursday, May 30 through June 2.

Swim hours are 9 a.m. to dusk and this facility will be open the weekend of June 8-9. Daily operations of the pool, bathhouse and food bar begin on Saturday, June 15.

In a new operational policy there is a combination charge of 15 cents for all persons using the pool and bathhouse, since all persons are required to shower before entering the pool. New coin-operated lockers have been installed for clothes checking and the charge is 25 cents per locker, with individuals in the same group or family permitted to share a locker. Girls and women are required to wear swim caps. Restrooms and a first-aid station are also provided.

The snack bar opens daily at 10 a.m. and its closing is the same as the swimming pool.

A major improvement this year has been the redesign and improved landscaping of the Woods Creek Picnic area, located adjacent to the parking lot and pool site. The area now has new paved walkways, a modern comfort station, rustic rail fencing to improve appearance and pedestrian traffic control and wooden bridges leading to the picnic area in the Woods Creek ravine. Several new items of play equipment have been added to the children's Tot Lot, where the sand box has been enlarged and a new concrete turtle-shaped climber has been installed.

Other facilities in the park include an 18-hole, "Par 3" golf course, nature center and nature trails, and several picnic areas along the Huron River. There are ball diamonds, shuffleboard and horseshoe courts.

Picnic groups of 50 or more persons are requested to notify the park office of their location. This is helpful should emergencies develop or should additional persons seek a group. No picnic reservations are available.

Entrance to the park is on Hannan Road, 1/2 mile south of the I-94 Freeway (use the Haggerty Road Exit) between Detroit Metropolitan Airport and Belleville.

Lower Huron Metropolitan Park, developed gradually from a 400-acre site in the 1950's, is one of eight sites developed and maintained by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, a regional park agency serving the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne.

The HCMA parks include Metropolitan Beach near Mt. Clemens, Stony Creek Metropolitan Park near Utica, Marshbank Metropolitan Park near Pontiac, Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford, Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville, and Delhi, Dexter-Huron and Hudson Mills Metropolitan Parks near Ann Arbor.

A free map showing the location and facilities of all HCMA parks is available by writing to METROPARK GUIDE, Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, 1750 Guardian Building, Detroit, Michigan, 48226 or phoning 961-5865 (Detroit).

Huron River Park, a 17-acre riverside site formerly administered by the Wayne County Road Commission, is open daily. It has playground equipment, picnic tables, stoves and restrooms. Eventually this property will be incorporated into Willow Metropolitan Park, a 1,500-acre site under development by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority and expected to be in public use before 1970.

The entrances to Huron River Park are on Willow Road between Huron River Drive and South Huron Road. The park is located between New Boston and Flat Rock.

Willie Heston Nominations

Outstanding not only in athletics but also scholastically, these are the criteria which determine who will be awarded the coveted "Willie" Heston Athletic-Scholarship.

And six from the area are among the 35 being considered for the $2,000 scholarship.

Charles Sakmar, one of the mainstays of Garden City East's basketball team, a team which finished the Mid-Wayne season undefeated and went on to capture the regional and district titles, will represent his school.

Nominated for his outstanding contribution in sports and ranked 16 in a class of 315 seniors, Charles has won five varsity letters in basketball and golf.

He earned All-Mid-Wayne, All-Area, MVP cage recognition on coach Billy Joe Young's team, while he also was given the MVP award on the golf squad.

Garden City West's nominee is Charles DeShais, who ranks 35 in a class of 350. The 17-year-old, 5 feet 8, 165 versatile athlete has also won five varsity stripes.

DeShais was the captain of the wrestling squad and played varsity football for two years. He is a member of the National Honor Society and the varsity club and also attended Wolverine Boy's State.

Glenn's David Arble has competed in wrestling, track and cross country-co- and cross country, co-captaining the Rockets in the latter sport. He has accumulated a total of nine varsity letters and has been the Northwest Suburban mat champ for three consecutive years.

Cherry Hill High's candidate, Ray Wiacek, is ranked No. 1 in a class of 240 students scholastically and is a member of the National Honor Society, forensic winner, member of the varsity debate team and recipient of the University of Michigan Board of Regents Scholarship, including the Michigan Competitive Scholarship.

Wiacek, despite an illness which kept him out of sports competition his junior year, won six varsity letters in basketball, baseball, and football.

He was captain of the baseball and football teams.

William Spirka, Roblehaud High's candidate, is a 17-year-old grinder who presents credentials as one of the top scholars in the class of 282 students.

Spirka ranks 19 and has earned one varsity grid letter.

Wayne Memorial High's David Cwikla, an 18-year-old six foot, 190 pound, all-round athlete is rated 83rd in a class of 478 students. He has won recognition as a grinder, baseball and basketball player.

Six varsity letters, two each in basketball and football, Cwikla was also picked All-Sauk Trail Conference in football.

Dave was semi-finalist in the State of Michigan competitive scholarship program.

Education: Don't Take It for Granted

TO THE EDITOR:

Today people take so much for granted.

In the past year, my husband and I have had an experience which every member of the Wayne Community School District should have, before they go to the polls on June 10th.

As a child, I attended the Michigan Schools where I received a well-rounded education, which at that time I took for granted. Today as I look back, I realize how lucky I was to have been educated in Michigan.

Five years ago our family moved out of the state, where two of our children started their schooling. There was no kindergarten due to a shortage of money, teachers and classrooms. Today they envy their little sister, who is having this wonderful and important experience in the Wayne Community Schools.

When my oldest child had been in school for a year, we realized that he had a learning problem. Because of lack of school funds, well-educated personnel and special education services, this problem was overlooked, and as a result, our son spent three years in the first grade.

When we learned that we would be returning to Michigan, I wrote a letter to the Wayne Community Schools informing them of our problem. Within a week after our arrival here, I had talked to the principal of our school, members of the school administration, and the school nurse. The next six months were spent in a group effort of many concerned people, finding out his problem. Today as a result of their individual interest and concern for one child, we have a well adjusted boy who is trying to overcome a problem, which (if he had been here) would have had attention years ago. I wish I could help people to realize the importance of a good school system.

There are many people in our community who don't have children attending our schools, but remember, someday you might have your children going here, or a grandchild.

Don't take your child's education for granted. This millage is for them. They are so lucky to be educated here. We don't want them going to school just a half a day. We don't want them to be in an overcrowded classrooms, and we don't want to lose our special services (someday you might have a child with a problem.)

Remember this millage vote is just for one year. Surely we can sacrifice a few dollars a month for the sake of our children.

AMERICA'S ONLY TOTAL DISCOUNT DRUG CHAIN!

it's 'Official' in Associated Newspapers

No matter where you live in Western Wayne County, one of the FIVE Associated Newspapers is the official legal publication of your community!

WHAT DOES THIS DESIGNATION MEAN?

TO YOU

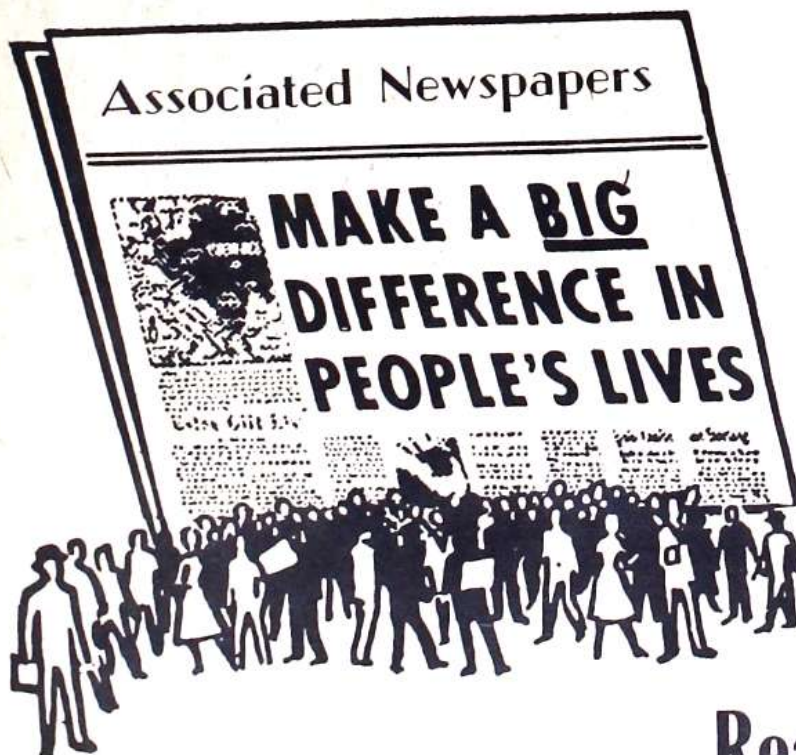

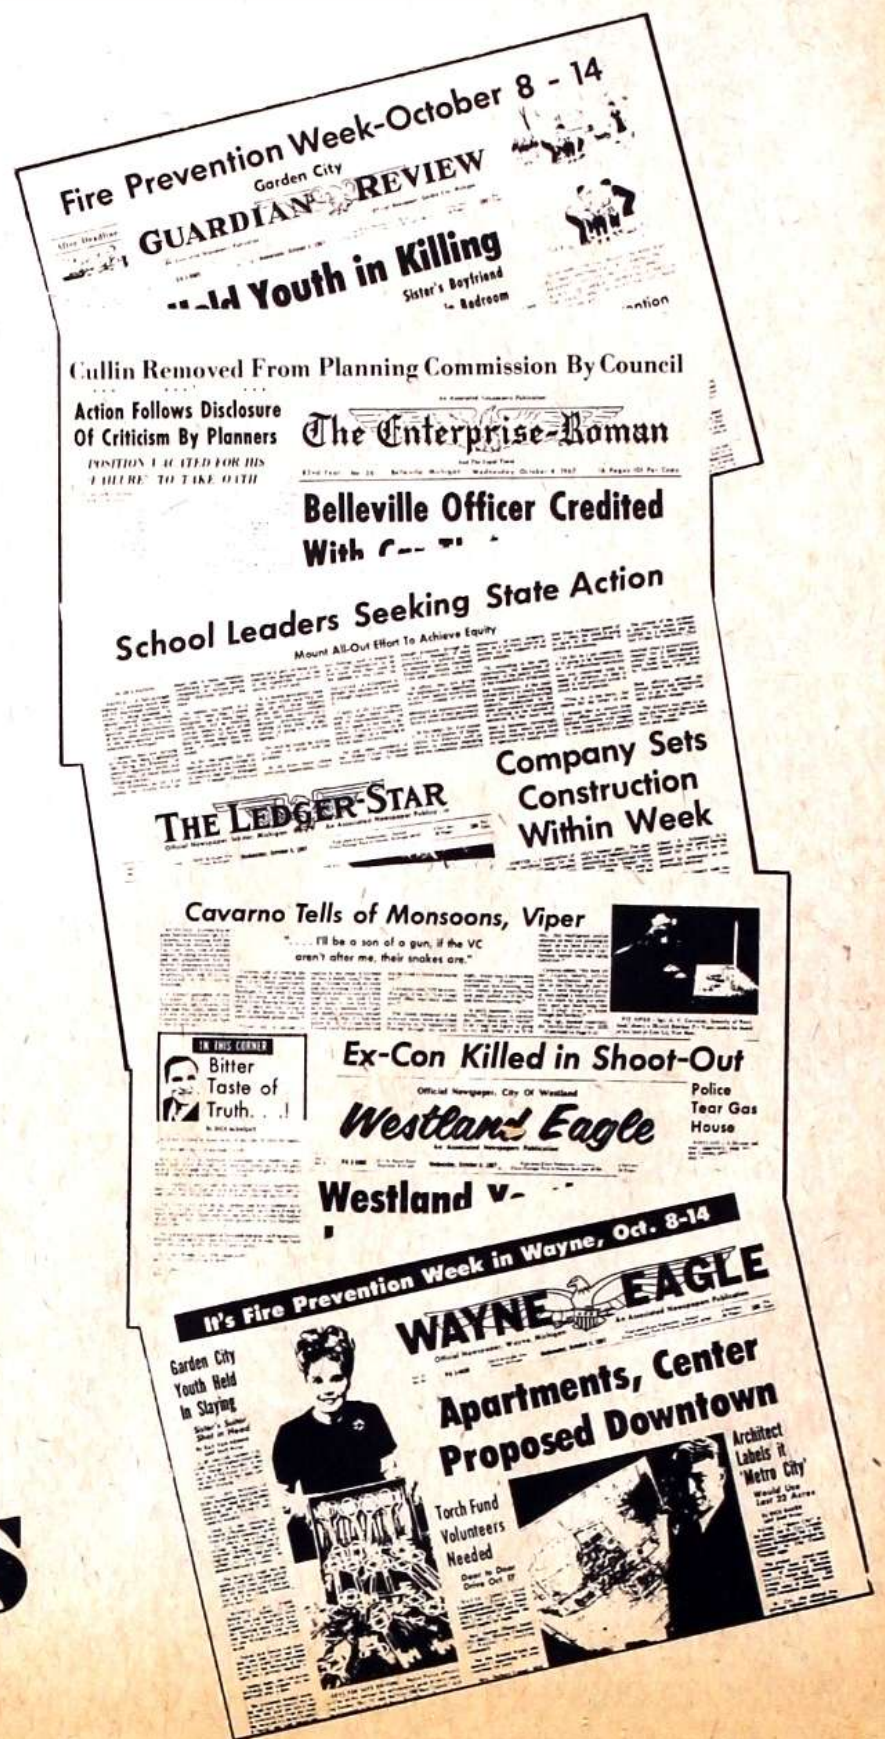

It means that ONLY in an Associated Newspaper can you find the official actions of the various governmental bodies in your community. Western Wayne County is on the move... it's a vigorous, progressive area. New zoning ordinances are being approved... planning commissions are making decisions that may affect you and your property... your city council or township board may pass special assessments... changes are being considered in tax procedures... election details are vital. It is important you know of these varied actions--many of them affect you and your neighbors. And remember--ONLY in an Associated Newspaper can you read the "Official Proceedings!"

TO US

This means the governmental unit responsible for selecting an official publication in each community has demonstrated deep respect for the Associated Newspapers by awarding them this designation. This has been true not just this year but for many years in most of Western Wayne County areas. We are genuinely appreciative for this expression of confidence!

On Civil Disorders Reaction Results of Home Conservation Groups in First of TV Series Aired

Fears generated by South-eastern Michigan's urban crisis can be channeled constructively toward gaining positive results in race relations, a vast majority participating in a television study program have declared.

The positive reaction came from reports filed by 3,757 home conversation groups taking part in the "In Your Own Interest" TV series being aired Monday evenings at 7:30 p.m. over WWJ-TV Channel 4, and which will be continued on June 10, 17 and 24.

The series of documentary films dealing with the aftermath of last July's civil disorders is being produced by the Southeastern Michigan Community Forum, in turn a product of the Interfaith Action Council.

Some 5,000 home discussion groups took part in the first of the series, shown May 20, and early response forms fed to a computer show 2,805 persons believe fear can be turned into asset, as against 696 feeling otherwise.

PARTICIPANTS WERE asked to invite a group into their homes, view to programs, then record the individual feelings of the group members on a questionnaire form.

In reply to another question, only 277 said they attended their group session because of personal fears, while 3,453 said fear had nothing to do with their attendance.

Of the 3,757 persons responding to the questionnaires, 53.9 per cent said it was the first group discussion on the topic of racial unrest they ever had attended.

A SURPRISING 47.3 per cent said they had read no part of the Kerner Report, with another 47.1 per cent saying they had read part of it. Only 3.1 per cent had read it all.

(Figures do not always total 100 per cent of 3,757, for not all questions were answered in every case.)

Some 38.4 per cent said they felt the first of the five TV programs was "good," 24.6 per cent thought it "very good," while 20.5 per cent regarded it as "fair" and 4.4 per cent said it was "poor."

The responding audience was composed of 48.8 per cent high school graduates, 35.2 per cent college graduates, 17.1 per cent elementary school graduates and 13.9 per cent who have completed post-graduate work.

As to corrective measures in intergroup relations, the largest number, 2,624 thought the best job could be done by the press, radio and television by better news reporting of life in the black ghetto.

THE NEXT largest number, 2,340, thought the curative emphasis should be placed on personal-to-person contact, while 1,625 believed it could best be accomplished by the intermingling of religious groups.

A surprising 937 felt most could be accomplished by the establishment of specialized columns in daily newspapers dealing with interracial questions and personalities. An additional 846 emphasized "massive community organization in the black ghetto."

The first in the series, shown May 20, dealt with reactions to the rioting, while the second, shown May 27, dealt with "myths" whites and blacks believe about each other.

ARTHUR ALPERT, of New York, the executive producer of the programs, said the third program on June 10 will describe the ghetto, not as an all black place with miserable living conditions, but a place without power to change.

"We are going to try to tie this to society and how society has the power to change things," Alpert said.

"As the Kerner report shows, white society is involved in the ghetto, it perpetuates and condones it."

Jehovah's Witnesses To Attend Conclave

BELLEVILLE -- The weekly meetings of the Belleville Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will be cancelled from May 29 to June 2 Mr. Wayne F. Schultz, presiding minister of the congregation, announced. The regular schedule of weekly sessions will resume after June 3.

The reason for this suspension, is that 75 members of the congregation will be attending their Spring semi-annual Bible conclave at the Adlai Stevenson High School, 33500 Six Mile road, Livonia.

"The convention sessions will actually be a continuation of our local meetings, only on a much larger scale," Mr. Schultz said. The presence of some 1,600 delegates from the 16 congregations comprising Michigan Circuit No. 5 will underscore the convention theme: "Strengthening One Another to Remain in the Faith."

SEVERAL MEMBERS of the local congregation will appear on the program. During the model ministry school Friday evening, D.C. McWilliams will discuss "Composition as it Relates to an Effective Ministry." Sunday morning, Mitchell P. Ulick of 164 East Columbia avenue will open the session by considering with his audience the theme, "Serve Jehovah with Rejoicing" based on Psalm 100:2.

Pettus Wins League Title

Freshmen usually aren't heard from in the track circles until they've picked up some experience. But Belleville's Garrade Pettus is a welcomed exception to the rule.

The 16-year-old Tiger cub leaped 20 feet, 8-1/2 inches against the best in the conference and captured the Suburban Six League broad jump title.

Pettus was the only one on coach Marland Howard's team to emerge from the conference meet with a victory.

Plymouth, with a total of 79 points, became the new conference champ, dethroning Livonia Bentley while Redford Union picked up 68 points and placed second. In third place was Livonia Bentley with 50-1/2 points.

Then followed Allen Park, one point up on Belleville, with 21 points. The Tigers had 20 while Trenton gathered 17.

Aside from Pettus' first, Belleville also had two third places finishes in Mike Fant and the mile relay while the speed relay wound up in fourth.

Fant, in breaking his own 880-realy, was clocked in 1:58 even, but trailed Jim Lagana and Bob Cavender across, the finish line. Lagana's 1:56.4 for the 880 was also a new conference mark.

Howard's mile relay team of Fant, Tony Hall, Allan Fant and Joe Brooks ran a 3:32.6.

Mark Hardin, Pettus, Hall and Don Stabenow teamed up for a 1:36.1 for the 880-realy which earned them a fourth place. Hall also placed fifth in the high jump with a 5 foot, 8 inches performance.

Belleville will wind up the season Tuesday at North Farmington when the best of three leagues - the Suburban Six, Northwest Suburban, and the Inter-Lake compete in the Second Annual inter-league tournament.

Runs Second

The Chiefs and coach Grange will wind up the current campaign at Carlson where they'll participate in the Rockwood Jaycees' Invitational Meet on June 3rd.

IRWIN W. STECH, City Clerk

SPORTS MERIDIAN

(continued from page 19) It's bad when a teenager goes wrong -- and doubly so when that teenager is such an outstanding athlete.

Sports Banquet Casualty

And my apologies to Cherry Hill and athletic director Bill Mills. I accepted an invitation to attend the Spartans' "All Sports Banquet" and on the way to the affair got caught in a five-hour ordeal on the Ford and Chrysler Freeways.

A truck had crashed over the guard rail and was hung upon the ramp and the police worked desperately to free the driver. I was caught in the incident and counted the bumpers ahead of me and behind me and figured the best thing to do was to sit it out patiently.

I heard that coach Joe Grasley had some nice things to say about me. And that's a rare thing -- someone saying things nice about the Sports Meridian -- incredible!

Apparently the Good Man upstairs didn't want me to hear them.

And speaking of Cherry Hill, Mrs. Pat Snyder wants to know if there are any kind souls out there who are willing to donate some prizes for a worthy cause.

It seems that they've organized a Guys and Gals Bowling League at Cherry Hill Lanes and she feels that since these teenagers are active in doing good things in the community, the community should do something good for the kids.

A Farewell to Nault

I'm sorry to hear that Jerry Nault, Romulus Township Parks and Recreation director, has decided to call it quits after seven years on the job.

Jerry has been a constant source of good news and his releases have helped us put the paper together.

But we must agree with him when he says that the Township has grown to the point where a full-time director is a must. And believe me, I MUST go now!

Pick Chief Engineer

DETROIT -- Walter P. Meyers, 47, of Livonia, has been promoted to the highest engineering job in the Wayne County Road Commission -- County Highway engineer, the Wayne County Road Commission announced.

He succeeds Sol Lifszitz who retired last February.

Meyers successfully passed the Civil Service examination for the post and placed first on the list.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that by direction of the City Council of the City of Belleville a public hearing will be held on the 17th day of June, 1968, at 8:00 o'clock p.m. in the Council Chambers at 6 Main Street, in the City of Belleville, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, for the purpose of granting any person interested the right to be heard by the City Council on a proposed amendment to Section 6.1 to the zoning map of the City of Belleville.

Amendment to Section 6.1 will read as follows:

Section 6.1 - PRINCIPAL USES PERMITTED - In a Multiple-Family District, no building or land shall be used and no building shall be erected except for one or more of the following specified use, unless otherwise provided, in this Ordinance.

(a) All principal uses permitted in the R-T Two-Family Residential Districts with the lot area, yards and floor area requirements equal to at least the requirements of the immediately abutting residential district.

(b) Multiple-family dwellings.

(c) Non-profit clubs providing that no residential facilities of any kind be a part of the premises, and provided further that they shall not be let for commercial purposes (such as but not limited to: receptions, banquets or parties) nor be allowed a liquor license of any kind.

(d) Accessory buildings and uses customarily incident to any of the above permitted uses.
